OUT BROOKLYN. WITH MALARIA.

Ned Hanlon's Superbas and the Terry Collapses While in Training and Will Be Unable to Meet Attel Saturday-Two Doctors in Attendance.

> Terry McGovern, the great little fighter, is ill in bed at his home in Brooklyn, suffering from a complete breakdown. Drs. Hargrave and Creamer, who are in constant attendance, say McGovern is in a bad way and must not think of resuming trainng for a week or more.

As soon as possible Terry will go to Mount Clemens, Mich., where a two weeks' stay, the doctors say, may bring him around all right. McGovern contracted malarial fever holding down last place in the League House, on Jerome avenue. He has been getting in condition for a fight with Abe Attel, which is scheduled for while training at Johnson's Road cheduled to engage in three games have to be postponed, even at the sacri-Saturday night, but now the fight will fice of McGovern's $1,000 forfeit. Terry has been ailing for a week of more and has had to slacken his work. Feeling a little better yesterday he started out for a run on the road. He had gone only a short distance when his legs gave out and he sank to the ground. He was carried back to his training quarters and on the advice of Dr. Hargrave removed to his home in ment and there was a stiff wind blowing across the diamond that chilled spectators and players to the bones.

As a result of the poor showing which Fatsy Donovan's men have been making, the rooters failed to come out to witness the game, there not being more than 1,500 people present when the game started.

Hanlon is anxious to have his men beep up their winning streak, and in order to make sure of the first one he selected Schmidt, his California fiend, to twirl against the Cardinals. Donovan had to do some thinking before he made his selection. He has twelve twirlers at present and after watching them samm up he called on O'Neill to fill the bill.

BY GREENOCK.

Sure Shamrock III. Is the Best English Boat Ever Built and Hopes to Win the Cup.

GREENOCK, Scotland, May 26 .- The Corporation of Greenock gave a farewell banquet to-day to Sir Thomas Lipton A distinguished company was present and much enthusiasm was manifested.
The Chairman, Provost Anderson, in toasting Sir Thomas, wished him every success. Sir Thomas, replying, said he was gratified to think that these international contests cemented the friendship between the two countries.

He was convinced the cup challenger was by far the best boat ever built on this side. How she compared with the Reliance remained to be seen. But Sir Thomas had strong hopes this time he would finish first and with a good margin.

He believed that if he brought back a pitched ball, of Sheckard. M. the cup he would bring with it the friendship of the American people.

Vice-Commodore Sharman Crawford and others spoke in a similarly confident vein. The Vice-Commodore remarked that all they heard of the success of the Reliance's trials would only spur them to greater efforts. so that it could be determined if the Challenger had the same superiority after she had crossed the Atlantic.

BRITAIN STILL MAD ABOUT THE SAILS.

LONDON, May 26 .- The Pall Mall Gazette te-day joins in the protest against the use of Ratsey sails on the Reliance.

"This is a most unsportsmanlike pro eeding. If the race is to be a real test of merit each yacht should be com-pletely equipped in the country to which it belongs If the defender wins by means of British canvas it would not be an American victory at all. The enly consolation would be that the superior-ity of British workmanship received so fine a testimonial."

Sullivan by his work earned many supporters. He made a fine stand against his heavier foe, and if a decision to one man was absolutely necessary he would have been given it. Palmer forced the fighting in the early rounds. The American, it seemed, was satisfied to wait his chance. Palmer soon weakened from his own exertions, and when Sullivan started in to fight him the Englishman made a poor showing. At the end of the bout the Yankee was the fresher of the two, but Palmer's early work entitled him to a draw.

He was the aggressor all the way, and continually sent left jabo and many swings to Judge's face and body. The latter was very weak on several occasions and was several times saved by the gong. Judge, though, it must be said, fought a plucky battle and in a measure was deserving of victory. He tried many times to land the final blow, but O'Rourke's oleverness aided him in evading the punch until the twelfth round.

RUHLIN GETS IN RING TO-NIGHT.

Big Gus Tackles Sandy Ferguson in Fifteen-Round Bout Before Boston Club.

Gus Ruhlin will get into action as a fighter again to-night. Gus has been in the wrestling ring several times since he last fought, but he says he has lost none of his craftiness as a pugilist. He promises to prove this when he meets Sandy Ferguson, one of the many champion heavy-weights of England, in the ring of the Criterion Club, in Boston. The two big men are scheduled to go fifteen rounds, but Ruhlin says there is not a chance of it going that far. He expects to win by a knockout before the fight is very old. It will be the first contest between neavy-weights which has been decided in Boston. Ferguson has been training for a month for the bout. Ruh'n did nothing very strenuous in the training line at Bath Beach, where he lives, his work consisting chiefly of boxing bouts with pupils at the Dyker Heights A. C.
